

Marine VHF Radio Licence Course

USI NUMBER

As the AWQ VHF Marine Radio is a nationally recognised training course, you are required to have a UNIQUE STUDENT INDENTITY (USI) number.

You may have a USI from some other previous course such a First Aid. You can check for your USI number via www.usi.gov.au

If you don't, you will need to apply for one online -- it takes about 10 minutes if you follow the steps below.

Before you start make sure you have the following documents:

1. At least one and preferably two forms of ID ready eg Driver's Licence, Medicare Card.
2. Your personal contact details ready (e.g. email address, or mobile number, or address)

Visit the USI website at: www.usi.gov.au

1. At the home page -- under "STUDENT"
2. Select the "Create my USI" and follow the instructions
3. Select "I am an Australian Student"
4. Scroll down to "Verify your Identity"
5. Select your type of ID
6. On the next page, follow the instructions on the "USI STUDENT PORTAL"
To either "CREATE a USI" (apply for one) or "FORGOTTEN USI" (if you have forgotten your USI.)
7. Just Follow the prompts on the USI site. (your personal details you enter MUST match exactly with those on your form of ID.)

If you have difficulty in obtaining your USI, please call us and we can assist you in creating your USI.
